

General Meeting and Lecture . . .

Long Island: Historic Houses of the South Shore

OLD GRACE CHURCH
SUNDAY, APRIL 21ST, 2PM – 4 PM

The MASSAPEQUA MANOR

Join us for a general meeting of the Historical Society of the Massapequas . . .

Afterwards, Christopher M. Collora, the author of the new book Long Island: Historic Houses of the South Shore, will give a lecture on the history of the houses and mansions of the south shore of Long Island.

See the stately homes and mansions that dotted the south shore of Long Island, and hear the history behind them, from colonial times on!

Many of these homes were located in the Massapequas, adding a touch of local interest to their story . . .
